

A LEVEL PEARSON A LEVEL DRAMA: IMPROVING PERFORMANCE IN THE WRITTEN PAPER

CODE 7141

ABOUT THIS COURSE

This course has been updated following the first examinations in 2019 and is for teachers who wish to ensure achievement of students in the written element of the Edexcel A Level Drama and Theatre exam. By providing tried and tested teaching resources and techniques, the course aims to help teachers raise attainment by improving confidence in the classroom, knowledge and strengthen understanding of what examiners are looking for.

PROGRAMME

Developing A Level written work

10.00 – 10.30am

- Moving forward on feedback from the most recent year on the written paper
- Theatrical terminology to support written work and effective homework planning to support in class learning
- Revision checklists
- Who are our learners? How can we develop their higher order thinking? How can we differentiate accordingly?

Component 3, 1) Live Theatre Evaluation

10.30 – 11.00am

- Developing students' confidence in analysing live work, including the key skills of analysis and evaluation
- Making the right choices: choosing productions and questions that best suit your candidates
- Supporting lower ability students in written work, including the preparation of production notes: strategies that work best
- Practical strategies to stretch and challenge the very able student
- Avoiding pitfalls looking at an example response

Discussion: coffee break

11.00 – 11.15am

Component 3, 2) Page to Stage: realisation of an extract from a performance text. Performer and Designer

11.15 – 1.00pm

- How to approach exploring the set texts: informing students' own ideas
- Practical strategies and approaches to teaching the set texts
- Encouraging secure understanding of acting and designing for a set text, focusing on style, genre and context.
- Aiming for excellence: how to achieve the top marks
- Looking at an example of a candidate's response

Lunch and informal discussion

1.00 – 2.00pm

Component 3, 2) Page to Stage: Teaching skills to answer the extract based exam questions

2.00 – 3.45pm

- Teaching essay writing skills to meet the demands of the mark scheme
- How to encourage your students to focus on achieving a clear application of the extract, underpinning their work with understanding of theatrical techniques
- Analysing a candidate's design response, making feedback on written work meaningful to encourage students' progression
- Guiding students towards the sophisticated response

Component 3, 3 Interpreting one performance text, in light of one practitioner for a contemporary audience

2.00 – 3.30pm

- Practical text based workshop to focus on developing students' directing skills that underpin the question
- Approaches to encourage independent production concepts
- How to encourage students to take creative risks in imagining their own production, and utilising influences from the original performance conditions to access the higher mark bands of the criteria
- Getting the students to apply the practitioner confidently
- Breaking down an example of a candidate's response

Questions and evaluation

3.30 – 3.45pm

LOCATION/DATE

Online

Monday 01 March 2021

London

Monday 07 June 2021

COURSE LEADER

Caroline Fox has nineteen years of experience as a teacher and lecturer in Drama and Performing Arts. She has taught both within secondary schools in the London area and currently in Further Education in the North West, where she is a course team leader for both A-Level Drama and Theatre and BTEC Performing Arts Level 3.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Heads of Drama
- Heads of Performing Arts
- NQTs and those teaching the specification for the first time
- Teachers of Edexcel A Level

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING

- Develop a range of approaches to tackling set texts in practical and written lessons
- Take away feedback and marking strategies to raise attainment
- Increase understanding of the differing requirements and key elements of the written exam, including technical design terminology, steering towards appropriate director's concepts, effectively analysing and evaluating live theatre