WEBINAR LEADER

Wes Davies has been teaching and achieving consistently outstanding outcomes in A level PE for 12 years. Such was the success of these outcomes, he was nominated and shortlisted for the Times Educational Supplement (TES) UK Teacher of the Year award 2017/2018. He is currently head of academic PE and a teaching and learning coordinator at Worcester Sixth Form College. Wes delivers CPD and revision sessions in his own college, local authority and at institutions around the country. He is an enthusiastic presenter who places a big emphasis on memory strategies. He is currently working as an examiner for a major awarding body.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- All students of OCR A-level PE

FOCUS POINTS

- Confidently tackle challenging questions, following expert guidance from Wes Davis – who is currently leading an A level PE programme rated in the top 10% nationally (graded Alps 2 – 2019)
- Review trickier topics with revision activities during the webinar, covering practice types, feedback and social facilitation/inhibition
- Target higher grades with guidance on how to transfer previously learnt threshold concepts into outstanding evaluation/analysis responses
