

TEACHER WEBINARS

NEW: LEADING YOUR LANGUAGES TEAM TO SUCCESS IN UNCERTAIN TIMESABOUT THIS COURSE

Provide your staff team and your students with a strategic approach to mitigate the effects of school closures and lost time in 2020 and into 2021

The Series cost is £220 or sessions can be bought individually for £85 each. Sessions will be recorded and available if you miss a session.

This webinar series includes a set of notes which will be sent in advance for participants to use with their students.

This series of interactive webinars will place a positive focus on dealing decisively with the time students have lost, strategic planning for the next phase and managing the emotional impact on student well-being. We shall look at:

- How to evaluate the gap between where students are and where they need to be
- Focussing classroom time where it is needed
- Enhancing student capacity for independent study
- Risk assessed and dynamic planning strategies
- 'What-if?' scenarios
- Targeted and proportionate responses
- Keeping the students at the centre of what we do
- Maintaining good pace
- Dealing with student anxiety.

PROGRAMME

TIME

Webinar part 1 - Tuesday 22 September 2020 at 4.00-5.00pmMaking up for lost time

4.00 - 5.00pm

- Diagnostic tools to assess the scale of the task ahead
- Prioritisation of tasks and doing what will have the greatest impact
- The use and power of targeted interventions
- The most effective approaches to an adapted pedagogy

Webinar part 2 - Tuesday 29 September 2020 at 4.00-5.00pmStrategic planning for high impact

4.00 - 5.00pm

- How to be a super-strategist
- What makes the difference between leaders and managers
- Dealing with the uncertain and the unexpected
- Getting your team on-board

Webinar part 3 - Tuesday 06 October 2020 at 4.00-5.00pmMaking up for lost time

4.00 - 5.00pm

- Diagnostic tools to assess the scale of the task ahead
- Prioritisation of tasks and doing what will have the greatest impact
- The use and power of targeted interventions
- The most effective approaches to an adapted pedagogy

DATEPart 1 - 8183*Tuesday 22 September 2020*Part 2 - 8184*Tuesday 29 September 2020*Part 3 - 8185*Tuesday 06 October 2020*WEBINAR LEADER

Tim Guilford is an experienced education professional who held the role of Deputy Head of a London School for a number of years until recently. He is currently working as a consultant and trainer providing professional development in teaching and learning for Modern Languages as well as leadership and management, coaching and mentoring, and revision skills workshops to students. Tim has significant experience as a senior examiner and as an Ofqual consultant for A Level, and is co-authoring the new Hodder IGCSE Spanish textbook.

BENEFITS

- Moving forward positively focusing on the future and not dwelling on that past
- Being ready to respond swiftly and effectively in the next phases - contingency planning
- Re-establishing normality for all students in all year groups
- Giving our students a positive experience from a difficult situation