

AUTUMN
2018

Keynote educational

Education is everything we do

LAW

TEACHER COURSES

Call 01625 532974 or book online at www.keynote.org.uk

 @keynotecourses

> ABOUT THIS COURSE

This new course is designed for all Heads of Law who are looking to move their departments from “Good” to “Outstanding”, or who are looking for innovative methods for improving or extending their department and its teaching further. The role of the Head of Law is part of the judgement in whole school Leadership and Management under the new Ofsted framework and our presenter, a highly experienced Head of Law, will demonstrate proven methods to ensure that your Law department is of the highest quality.

> PROGRAMME

TIME

A range of approaches and strategies for achieving your vision 10.00 – 11.00am

- Developing your vision and the place of Law in the Sixth Form
- What do OFSTED look for in an Outstanding department under the new framework?
- Leadership styles to support and motivate your department
- Quality assurance and systems within the department to embed your vision

Discussion: coffee break 11.00 – 11.15am

How outstanding leadership can be achieved in a Law department 11.15 – 12.30pm

- Modelling outstanding practice within the team
- Exploring and developing the curriculum offer and subject enrichment
- Ensuring teachers and students are working to the correct awarding body standards
- Tracking student performance within the team and ensuring progress

Lunch and informal discussion 12.30 – 1.30pm

Strategies to self-evaluate and hold staff to account 1.30 – 2.30pm

- Lesson walks, work scrutiny, lesson observations, feedback
- Data analysis on teacher groups
- Academic intervention and stretching student performance

Discussion: afternoon tea 2.30 – 2.45pm

Sharing good practice in the department 2.45 – 3.15pm

- Mutual Observation
- Departmental shared area for student resources
- Cross department enrichment

How to recruit, lead, support and develop your staff 3.15 – 3.45pm

- Recruiting the best teachers for your department
- Professional development of staff in the team
- Dealing with difficult situations in the department
- Inspiring, motivating and managing effectively your team members

Plenary and final questions 3.45 – 4.00pm

> DATE

London
Monday 14 January 2019

> COURSE LEADER

Anne King has 20 years teaching experience in Law and has consistently outstanding results. She is an Assistant Head teacher and Head of Sixth Form recently graded outstanding in all areas. She is an experienced Law examiner and her subject achieves Grade 1 on ALPS.

> WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- > Current Heads of Law
- > Aspiring Heads of Law

> BENEFITS OF ATTENDING

- > Take away a range of approaches and strategies to achieve your vision
- > Learn how outstanding leadership can be achieved in a Law department
- > Develop strategies to self-evaluate and hold staff to account
- > Sharing good practice in the department
- > Learn how to recruit, lead, support and develop your staff

> ABOUT THIS COURSE

This course is to support new teachers of A-level Law develop their teaching qualities in this subject. Our highly experienced Law expert will demonstrate successful strategies and teaching methods for ensuring students maintain progress throughout the course and understand how to produce excellent answers to the examination questions.

> PROGRAMME

TIME

Understanding the key elements of the new specification

10.00 – 10.30am

- The specification content and planning your teaching
- Analysis of the examination papers and awarding body standards
- The options to choose to meet student needs
- Exploring the extended questions

Increase your understanding of teaching approaches to deliver outstanding lessons

10.30 – 11.15am

- How to gain high marks on the extended questions
- Making sure that students are answering to the correct level, especially at the top end
- Learning activities to support exam question skills and maintaining student motivation and progress

Discussion: coffee break

11.15 – 11.30am

Learn how to teach the evaluative questions

11.30 – 12.30pm

- Taking a synoptic approach linking topics and debating
- Teaching strategies to develop student understanding of such topics
- What the exam board is looking for in evaluative questions

Lunch and informal discussion

12.30 – 1.30pm

Take away materials to support delivery in the classroom

1.30 – 2.30pm

- Innovative resources to support teaching on sources of Law
- Sharing good practice within the group
- Model answers to support both Tort and Crime

Discussion: afternoon tea

2.30 – 2.45pm

Increase student independent learning in this

2.45 – 3.45pm

- Discussion of examples that improve independent learning
- Materials to take away and improve effective performance
- Marking independent learning and giving effective feedback

Plenary. Opportunity to ask questions

3.45 – 4.00pm

> DATE

London
Monday 10 June 2019

> COURSE LEADER

Anne King has 20 years teaching experience in Law and has consistently outstanding results. She is an Assistant Head teacher and Head of Sixth Form recently graded outstanding in all areas. She is an experienced Law examiner and her subject achieves Grade 1 on ALPS.

> WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- > New teachers of Law
- > Teachers looking to start teaching A level AQA Law

> BENEFITS OF ATTENDING

- > Extend your understanding the key elements of the specification and how to plan your teaching of it
- > Increase your understanding of teaching approaches for delivering outstanding lessons
- > Learn how to teach the evaluative questions for excellent A-level performance
- > Take away materials to support delivery in the classroom
- > Increase student independent learning in this subject

Conferences

STAFFING, WORKLOAD AND WELLBEING: CREATING A POSITIVE AND SUSTAINABLE SCHOOL CULTURE

NEW

CODE
7214

In response to the prevalent national issue of staff workload and retention, we are pleased to offer this brand new conference for Autumn 2018, which brings together leading experts who will address key issues and implications of the recent focus on staff wellbeing, retention and workload in schools.

> DATE

London
Friday 16 November 2018

> COST: £369+VAT
2nd delegate rate £339+VAT

> SPEAKERS: Professor Rachel Lofthouse, Hywel Roberts, Dr Debra Kidd

METACOGNITION AND SELF-REGULATED LEARNING: BOOSTING LEARNING AND PROGRESS

NEW

CODE
7222

We are pleased to offer a brand-new conference for Autumn 2018, which brings together leading experts to immerse delegates in the most current research, resources and strategies that will enable them to create a climate for self-directed teaching and learning in their schools.

> DATE

London
Thursday 22 November 2018

> COST: £369+VAT
2nd delegate rate £339+VAT

> SPEAKERS: David Weston, Ross McGill, Alison Kriel

Teacher Courses

Delegates receive on each course;

- A specially prepared folder of 50+ pages full of detailed notes, practical advice and guidance
- Notes prepared by the educational experts leading the course
- Expert produced PowerPoint presentations
- CPD Certificate of attendance
- Two course restaurant lunch
- Refreshments throughout the day
- Guaranteed high quality venues

Bookings:

Telephone us on: 01625 532974
Book online at www.keynote.org.uk
Email online@keynote.org.uk

What happens next?

You will receive confirmation of your booking within 48 hours.
Joining instructions will be sent to you two weeks in advance of the event.
If you haven't received them by then please get in touch with us.

In School CPD

All courses and student conferences in this brochure can be booked to run in your school or they can be adapted and customised to suit.
For more information please contact the CPD Team on 01625 532974.